FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Washington, DC (October 3, 2004) – Skin Savvy Spa Express was featured in the Sunday, October 3, 2004 edition of the Washington Post. Since many patrons of salons and spas have received bad service, The Washington Post wrote a story to inform patrons of the characteristics of a treatment performed correctly and noted red flags of treatments being performed incorrectly.

Skin Savvy Spa Express, an area leader in hair removal and skin care, was selected to discuss the dos and don'ts of an eyebrow shaping service. The article features one of our three esthetician's Maryam Gouloubandi, who is skilled in eyebrow shaping using threading and waxing techniques, who states, "always work with the natural shape (of the brows)."

Skin Savvy Spa Express, a boutique spa that couples express services with the pampering and customer service of a resort spa to create the ultimate experience, was introduced two years ago in Washington, DC. The contemporary and urban style of the convenient Dupont Circle location allows clients to 'come and escape' the stress and pressures of everyday life. Offering a wide range of skin care, hair removal, natural nail treatments, and massages for men and women.

The spa is featured in the March 2004 issue of Essence Magazine for our facials and the July 2004 issue of LUCKY Magazine for our pedicures.
